Plan outlay for Madhya Pradesh

1301. SHRI BALKAVI BAIRAGI:
SHRI SURESH PACHOURI:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the per capita plan outlay for States for 2001-02;

(b) the reasons for low per capita plan outlay for Madhya Pradesh; and

(c) the manner in which Government propose to increase flow of finances to Madhya Pradesh?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (SHRI SATYABRATA MOOKHERJEE): (a) The per capita Plan outlay for States for 2001-02 is given in a Statement (See below)

(b) Annual Plan Outlays of States are jointly funded by the States (States' Own Resources) and the Central Government (Central Assistance). Central Assistance to the States consists of Normal Central Assistance, Assistance for Externally Aided Projects, Special Central Assistance for specific projects/programmes, Special Plan Assistance and Additional Central Assistance. Population is not the only criterion for allocation of Central Assistance, and the determination of the size of States' Own Resources does not depend on the States' population, but on its financial position. Therefore, for populous States like Madhya
